

Art of Activism Proposal - Submission Form

Maryland Hall, in partnership with the Banneker Douglass Museum and Maryland Commission on African American History and Culture, invite Maryland-based Black artists, whose work encapsulates activism and social justice through education, to send proposals to take - one of six - 5 ft. by 9 ft. tall Black Lives Matter banners, which are currently hanging on the front steps of Maryland Hall, to use as a canvas for justice.

The 6 artists selected by a panel of jurors, in addition to having their finished banners displayed on our campus, will participate in a curated exhibition called Art of Activism, which will be on display at Maryland Hall from (January 8 - February 27, 2021). Hand selected protest art from private collections will be displayed throughout the building to complement current activist art.

Additional artists will be chosen to create work on smaller Black Lives Matter banners that will hang at the Banneker Douglass Museum and will coincide with the Art of Activism showcase at Maryland Hall.
